PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

After a very successful charity golf day in April the NHJC is continuing to provide members and the young business community with some great upcoming events.

Come along to the Lovedale Long Lunch on May 17 for a social networking opportunity.

We're raising money for Pulse, one of our affiliate charities and the day is always great fun!

We're also looking forward to hearing from Trevor Waring about a healthy work life balance on May 29 at the monthly dinner forum.

If you haven't joined the NHJC as a member in 2008 don't delay!

For only $50 you receive a member discount to all NHJC and Hunter Business Chamber events as well as the opportunity to network with the business

There are also some great sponsorship opportunities available so if you are interested in sponsoring the NHJC please don't hesitate to be in touch with us. See you at an event soon!

APRIL FORUM

JOSIE McMANUS

At the last dinner forum the NHJC partnered with Westfield Kotara and was proud to welcome personal stylist and fashion guru Josie McManus.

With an extensive fashion industry background Josie has styled photo editorials, worked on major advertising campaigns and styled celebrities for awards shows. You can view Josie's handiwork on her website www.thestylelab.com.au or check out the new fashion central at Westfield Kotara.

In her role as resident personal stylist Libby demonstrated her winter wardrobe essentials and what's what for stepping out in style. Even the guys received a few tips for winter styling, from tucking in shirts to tying scarves.

Butlers on Hunter provided the venue and attendees who braved the wet weather received a free gift, courtesy of the fashion team at Westfield Kotara.
